Psalmody Evangelica, 1789

LIFT up your heads, ye mighty gates;
Behold the King of glory waits!
The King of kings is drawing near;
The Saviour of the world is here.

2 O blest the land, the city blest,
Where Christ the ruler is confest!
O happy hearts and happy homes
To whom this King of triumph comes!

3 Fling wide the portals of your heart;
Make it a temple, set apart
From earthly use for heaven's employ,
Adorned with prayer and love and joy.

*4 Redeemer, come! I open wide
My heart to thee: here, Lord, abide!
Let me thy inner presence feel:
Thy grace and love in me reveal.

5 So come, my Sovereign; enter in!
Let new and nobler life begin;
Thy Holy Spirit guide us on,
Until the glorious crown be won. Amen.

GEORGE WEISSEL, 1642, based on Psalm 24

Gradual Hymn

IN BABLONE

Dutch

HAIL, thou once despisèd Jesus!

Hail, thou Galilean King!

Thou didst suffer to release us;

Thou didst free salvation bring.

Hail, thou universal Saviour,

Bearer of our sin and shame!

By thy merit we find favor:

Life is given through thy Name.

2 Paschal Lamb, by God appointed,

All our sins on thee were laid:

By almighty love anointed,

Thou hast full atonement made.

All thy people are forgiven

Through the virtue of thy blood:

Opened is the gate of heaven,

Peace is made 'twixt man and God.

3 Jesus, hail! enthroned in glory,

There for ever to abide;

All the heavenly hosts adore thee,

Seated at thy Father's side.

There for sinners thou art pleading:

There thou dost our place prepare;

Ever for us interceding,

Till in glory we appear.

Before the reading of the Gospel, a Bible is presented to the Incumbent with these words

Rodger, receive this Bible, and be in this place as one who proclaims the Word.

People Amen.

The Incumbent reads the Gospel, first saying

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory be to thee, O Lord.

After the Gospel, the Incumbent says

The Gospel of the Lord.

People Glory be to thee, O Christ.

Gradual Hymn (last verse)

4 Worship, honor, power, and blessing

Thou art worthy to receive:

Highest praises, without ceasing,

Meet it is for us to give.

Help, ye bright angelic spirits,

Bring your sweetest, noblest lays;

Help to sing our Saviour's merits,

Help to chant Emmanuel's praise! Amen.

The Sermon

Hymn

376 DOWN AMPNEY

R. V. WILLIAMS, 1906

COME down, O Love divine,
Seek thou this soul of mine,
And visit it with thine own ardor glowing;
O Comforter, draw near,
Within my heart appear,
And kindle it, thy holy flame bestowing.

2 O let it freely burn,
Till earthly passions turn
To dust and ashes in its heat consuming;
And let thy glorious light
Shine ever on my sight,
And clothe me round, the while my path illumining.

3 And so the yearning strong,
With which the soul will long,
Shall far outpass the power of human telling;
For none can guess its grace,
Till he become the place
Wherein the Holy Spirit makes his dwelling.
Amen.

BIANCO DA SIENA, d. 1434

The Induction

Representatives of the congregation and of the clergy of the diocese stand before the Incumbent and make presentations.

Rodger, take this water, and help the bishop baptize in obedience to our Lord.

People Amen.

A Parishioner presents a book of prayers, saying

Rodger, receive this Book of Common Prayer and these Commentaries, and be among us as a man of diligent study and fervent prayer.

People Amen.

Others present an ampulla of oil, saying

Rodger, use this oil, and be among us as a healer and reconciler.

Help us to heal those who are broken in body or spirit, that God may turn their sorrow into joy.

People Amen.

The Senior Warden of the parish presents a key, saying

Rodger, receive this key, and let the doors of this place be open to all people.

People Amen.

A Presbyter of the diocese presents the Canons of the General Convention, saying

Rodger, obey these Canons, and be among us to share in the councils of this diocese.

People Amen.

The Incumbent, standing in the midst of the congregation, prays

O Lord my God, I am not worthy to have you come under my roof; yet you have called your servant to stand in your house, and to serve at your altar. To you and to your service I devote myself, body, soul, and spirit. Fill my memory with the record of your mighty works; enlighten my understanding with the light of your Holy Spirit; and may all the desires of my heart and will center in what you would have me do. Make me an instrument of your salvation for the people entrusted to my care, and grant that I may faithfully administer your holy Sacraments, and by my life and teaching set forth your true and living Word. Be always with me in carrying out the duties of my ministry. In prayer, quicken my devotion; in praises, heighten my love and gratitude; in preaching, give me readiness of thought and expression; and grant that, by the clearness and brightness of your holy Word, all the world may be drawn into your blessed kingdom. All this I ask for the sake of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ. AMEN.

The Institutor then presents the Incumbent to the congregation, saying

Greet your new Rector.

The Congregation expresses its approval. Applause is appropriate.

The new Rector says to the people

The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And with thy spirit.

The Clergy and People greet one another.

At the Eucharist

The new Rector begins the Offertory with these sentences

Let thy priests be clothed with righteousness; let thy faithful people sing with joy. Alleluia. Alleluia.

The new Rector then takes his place at the Lord's Table. Representatives of the congregation present bread and wine, saying Rodger, take this bread and wine, and be among us to break the Bread and bless the Cup.

People Amen.

All may then sit for the Offertory Anthem.

"I Was Glad When They Said unto Me" .... C. Hubert H. Parry

I was glad when they said unto me,
We will go into the house of the Lord.
Our feet shall stand in thy gates, O Jerusalem.
Jerusalem is builded as a city that is at unity in itself.
O pray for the peace of Jerusalem;
they shall prosper that love thee.
Peace be within thy walls,
and plenteousness within thy palaces.

Psalm 122:1-3, 6, 7

*The service continues with the Great Thanksgiving.
The People stand. The Celebrant faces them and says*

People The Lord be with you.
Celebrant And with thy spirit.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them up unto the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.
People It is meet and right so to do.

Then, the Celebrant proceeds

It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto thee, O Lord, holy Father, almighty, everlasting God.

Through the great shepherd of thy flock, Jesus Christ our Lord; who after his resurrection sent forth his apostles to preach the Gospel and to teach all nations; and promised to be with them always, even unto the end of the ages.

Therefore with Angels and Archangels, and with all the company of heaven, we laud and magnify thy glorious Name; evermore praising thee, and saying,

SANCTUS

H. WILLAN, 1928

HO-LY, HO-LY, HO - - LY, Lord God of hosts,

Hea-ven and earth are full of thy glo-ry: Glo -

- ry be to thee, O Lord Most High. A - - - men.

Bless - ed is he that com - eth in the name - of the Lord, Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The People kneel.

Then the Celebrant continues

All glory be to thee, O Lord our God, for that thou didst create heaven and earth, and didst make us in thine own image; and, of thy tender mercy, didst give thine only Son Jesus Christ to take our nature upon him, and to suffer death upon the cross for our redemption. He made there a full and perfect sacrifice for the whole world; and did institute, and in his holy Gospel command us to continue, a perpetual memory of that his precious death and sacrifice, until his coming again.

For in the night in which he was betrayed, he took bread; and when he had given thanks to thee, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take, eat, this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Likewise, after supper, he took the cup; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink this, all of you; for this is my Blood of the New Covenant, which is shed for you, and for many, for the remission of sins. Do this, as oft as ye shall drink it, in remembrance of me."

Wherefore, O Lord and heavenly Father, we thy people do celebrate and make, with these thy holy gifts which we now offer unto thee, the memorial thy Son hath commanded us to make; having in remembrance his blessed passion and precious death, his mighty resurrection and glorious ascension; and looking for his coming again with power and great glory.

And we most humbly beseech thee, O merciful Father, to hear us, and, with thy Word and Holy Spirit, to bless and sanctify these gifts of bread and wine, that they may be unto us the Body and Blood of thy dearly-beloved Son Jesus Christ.

And we earnestly desire thy fatherly goodness to accept this our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving, whereby we offer and present unto thee, O Lord, our selves, our souls and bodies. Grant, we beseech thee, that all who partake of this Holy Communion may worthily receive the most precious Body and Blood of thy Son Jesus Christ, and be filled with thy grace and heavenly benediction; and also that we and all thy whole Church may be made one body with him, that he may dwell in us, and we in him; through the same Jesus Christ our Lord;

By whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Ghost all honor and glory be unto thee, O Father Almighty, world without end. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ hath taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread, then says

People Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;
Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The People then join in saying this prayer

We do not presume to come to this thy Table, O merciful Lord, trusting in our own righteousness, but in thy manifold and great mercies. We are not worthy so much as to gather up the crumbs under thy Table. But thou art the same Lord whose property is always to have mercy. Grant us therefore, gracious Lord, so to eat the flesh of thy dear Son Jesus Christ, and to drink his blood, that we may evermore dwell in him, and he in us. Amen.

AGNUS DEI

H. WILLAN, 1928

Men O Lamb of God, that ta - kest a - way the sins of the world, have mer-cy up - on . . . . us. O Lamb of God, that ta - kest a - way the sins of the world, have mer - cy up - on . . . . . us.

All

O Lamb of God, that ta - kest a - way the sins of the world, grant . . . us thy . . . peace.

The Celebrant says the following Invitation

The Gifts of God for the People of God. Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

The Communion of the People. All baptized Christians are welcome at the Lord's Table.

After Communion, the Assisting Priest leads the People in this prayer

Almighty Father, we thank thee for feeding us with the holy food of the Body and Blood of thy Son, and for uniting us through him in the fellowship of thy Holy Spirit. We thank thee for raising up among us faithful servants for the ministry of thy Word and Sacraments. We pray that Rodger may be to us an effective example in word and action, in love and patience, and in holiness of life. Grant that we, with him, may serve thee now, and always rejoice in thy glory; through Jesus Christ thy Son our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The new Rector pronounces this blessing

The God of peace, who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ, the great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. AMEN.

The new Rector then dismisses the People with these words

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Closing Hymn

CWM RIONDDA
John Hughes, 1907

OD of grace and God of glory,
On thy people pour thy power;
Crown thine ancient Church's story;
Bring her bud to glorious flower.
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage,
For the facing of this hour.

2 Lo! the hosts of evil round us
Scorn thy Christ, assail his ways!
From the fears that long have bound us
Free our hearts to faith and praise:
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage,
For the living of these days.

3 Cure thy children's warring madness,
Bend our pride to thy control;
Shame our wanton, selfish gladness,
Rich in things and poor in soul.
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage,
Lest we miss thy kingdom's goal.

4 Set our feet on lofty places;
Gird our lives that they may be
Armored with all Christ-like graces
In the fight to set men free.
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage,
That we fail not man nor thee. Amen.
